Informational SNAP Resources Translated into 36 Languages

Five basic SNAP documents have been translated into 36 languages and are easily downloadable for simple copying and distribution. An “I Speak” document is also available which allows a person to indicate to a caseworker or advocate what language he or she speaks so that accommodations can be made.

The following documents are available:

- Questions and Answers About Getting and Using SNAP SNAP313
A brochure that provides useful information about SNAP.
- “Public Charge”
A notice to reassure immigrants that receiving SNAP benefits will not make them public charges, so that it will not affect their immigration status.
- “Immigrant Eligibility Questions and Answers”
A series of facts for immigrants about SNAP eligibility, based on changes in the 2002 Farm Bill.
- “Documents Needed to Apply for SNAP”
A list (in English and the target language) of documents that may be needed to prove eligibility for SNAP benefits.
- “Fact Sheet on Eligibility”
Ten facts about SNAP for elderly (60 and older) and disabled persons.

SNAP Logo Guidelines

The SNAP logo may be applied to program materials used for identification, public notification and awareness, nutrition education, and outreach. The SNAP logo may be used by those administering SNAP, including the 53 State SNAP agencies and their counterparts at the local and county levels, for purposes consistent with SNAP statutes, regulations, and policies. Other organizations, such as nonprofit organizations and authorized SNAP retailers engaged in SNAP outreach or nutrition education, may use the SNAP logo for noncommercial educational and outreach purposes when such uses are a public service and contribute to public information and education concerning SNAP. FNS has developed guidelines for using the SNAP logo.

Organizations Serving Older Adults

Please note that this is a sampling of organizations serving older Americans and not a complete list.

The Administration on Aging (AoA)

An agency in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, is one of the nation's largest providers of home- and community-based care for older persons and their caregivers. This network, serving about 7 million older persons and their caregivers, consists of 56 State Units on Aging; 655 Area Agencies on Aging; 233 Tribal and Native organizations; two organizations that serve Native Hawaiians; 29,000 service providers; and thousands of volunteers. These organizations provide assistance and services to older individuals and their families in urban, suburban, and rural areas throughout the United States.

www.aoa.gov

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS)

The CMS is a federal agency within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. CMS runs the Medicare and Medicaid programs - two national health care programs that benefit about 75 million Americans.

<http://www.cms.hhs.gov>

Leadership Council of Aging Organizations

A large coalition of the nation's nonprofit organizations serving older Americans. There is a 56 member association which is diverse and dedicated to preserving and strengthening the well-being of America's older population. This national organization advocates on behalf of seniors and their families in the ongoing national debate on aging policy.

www.lcao.org

Social Security Administration

The Social Security Administration (SSA) provides retirement and disability benefits to eligible Americans. Retirement benefits start at age 62 and are based on your average earnings during a lifetime of work under the Social Security system. SSA is responsible for two major programs that provide benefits based on disability: Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), which is based on prior work under Social Security, and Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Under SSI, payments are made on the basis of financial need. SSI disability benefits are payable to adults or children who are disabled or blind, have limited income and resources, meet the living arrangement requirements, and are otherwise eligible. SSDI benefits are payable to blind or disabled workers, widow(er)s, or adults disabled since childhood, who are otherwise eligible.

<http://www.ssa.gov>

National Association of Area Agencies on Aging (N4A)

N4A is the umbrella organization for the 655 area agencies on aging (AAAs) and more than 230 Title VI Native American aging programs in the U.S. Through its presence in Washington, D.C., N4A advocates on behalf of the local aging agencies to ensure that needed resources and support services are available to older Americans.

www.n4a.org

AARP Foundation

Founded in 1958, AARP Foundation is a nonprofit, nonpartisan membership organization that helps people 50 and over improve the quality of their lives.

www.aarp.org

National Association of Nutrition and Aging Services Programs (NANASP)

NANASP is a professional membership organization with members drawn primarily from persons working in or interested in the field of aging, community-based services, and nutrition and the elderly. Founded in the 1970s, NANASP is one of the leadership organizations in that it helps shape national policy, trains service providers, and advocates on behalf of older adults.
www.nanasp.org

National Council on Aging

A nonprofit service and advocacy organization. Brings together nonprofit organizations, businesses and government to develop creative solutions that improve the lives of all older adults.
www.ncoa.org

BenefitsCheckUp

Developed and maintained by The National Council on Aging (NCOA), BenefitsCheckUp is the nation's most comprehensive Web-based service to screen for benefits programs for seniors with limited income and resources. BenefitsCheckUp helps older adults find and enroll in federal, State, local and private programs that help pay for prescription drugs, utility bills, meals, health care and other needs.
www.benefitscheckup.org

Elder Care Locator

The Eldercare Locator is a public service of the U.S. Administration on Aging. The Eldercare Locator is the first step to finding resources for older adults in any U.S. community. Just one phone call or Web site visit instantly connects individuals to eldercare resources in their communities.
www.eldercare.gov

Community Transportation Association (CTA)

Transportation planning and coordination, supported with sufficient investment in transit alternatives, can help communities more effectively and efficiently meet the needs of their seniors and ensure their essential place in community life.
www.ctaa.org

Senior Corps, Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS)

Senior Corps is a program of the Corporation for National and Community Service, an independent federal agency created to connect Americans of all ages and backgrounds with opportunities to give back to their communities and their nation. Senior Corps offers a network of programs that tap the rich experience, skills and talents of older citizens to meet community challenges. Among these programs is the Senior Companion Program which brings together volunteers age 55 and over with adults in their community who have difficulty with the simple tasks of day-to-day living. Companions help out on a personal level by assisting with shopping and light chores, interacting with doctors, or just making a friendly visit.
